WHEELS EUROPE

A photograph of a subway tunnel. On the left is a platform with a yellow tactile paving strip. The tracks curve into the distance, illuminated by overhead lights. The right side of the image shows the dark, vertical structure of a train. The overall atmosphere is dim and industrial.

A dark, moody photograph of several coats hanging on a rack. The coats are dark-colored and their sleeves and collars are visible, creating a sense of depth and texture. The lighting is low, emphasizing the contours of the garments. The word "APPAREL" is centered in a clean, white, sans-serif font.
