The Brand

Poetic Collective was founded by Tom Botwid during his time studying at the the art academy in Berlin.

Poetic Collective is run from the Malmö office where we use the small-scale of the brand to our advantage. The focus is on creative graphics with an analog feeling, quality items and oversized silhouettes.

Poetic Collective strives to be a sustainable brand. Large parts of the collection is produced in Europe from organic cotton and post consumer recycled polyester.

Our philosophy of inclusivity and creativity is visible also in our diverse team of European skaters that is an integral part of the brand in every way. You can see them all in our latest full length video NOW.

Ethic Production

We consistently aim to improve the production cycle of our collections and introduce sustainable materials into the skateboarding industry.

We are proud to say that a majority of our collection is made from GOTS certified organic cotton and post consumer recycled polyester. We work with small factories that maintain both fair wages and working conditions in Poland, Portugal and India.

Our office is based in Malmö Sweden where we as a small team work on the brand and all the designs. Our warehouse and logistics are run out of the city where Poetic Collective was founded, Berlin Germany.

HOODIES

Sustainable production

Our basic hoodie and zip hoodie that we use for all printed items are all made from organic cotton and post consumer recycled polyester, meaning that for each item, 5 x 50 cl plastic bottles have been recycled to create threads and for each hoodie 6 bottles.

This is known as post-consumer recycling, i.e. these materials are given a “post-consumption” second life to prevent the use of virgin materials in textile production.
